

DONA Approved Birth Doula Workshop

“If a doula were a drug, it would be unethical not to use it.”

John H. Kennell,
MD, 1998

This workshop is for anyone interested in assisting women and their families to have satisfying birth experiences. It utilizes texts and supplementary literature, videos, slides, small group activities, hands-on practice and role play to develop theoretical knowledge and practical skills as a birth doula. Attendance constitutes one step in the process to become a DONA certified birth doula. Upon completion of this workshop participants will be able to:

- ♥ Describe the significance of birth to women and their families; ♥ Define the role of the birth doula;
- ♥ Explain the DONA International Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics for the birth doula; ♥ List benefits of continuous support by a birth doula on obstetrical and psychological outcomes based on the research; ♥ Describe the emotional and physical needs of laboring women and their partners; ♥ Compare specific characteristics of laboring women who are and are not coping well; ♥ Demonstrate comfort measures and optimal birth positions for laboring women; ♥ Analyze the birth doula’s role when her client has an epidural; ♥ Describe the birth doula’s role in the prenatal and postpartum visit; ♥ Describe the birth doula’s role during a cesarean birth; ♥ Describe the birth doula’s role with the family during the immediate postpartum period; ♥ Discuss the process for DONA International birth doula certification

This two-day intensive Birth Doula Workshop has been approved as one step toward birth doula certification with DONA International.

The optional one day Introduction to Childbirth Course for Doulas offered the day prior to the Birth Doula Workshop satisfies the childbirth class observation certification requirement for those who are not childbirth educators, nurses with labor and delivery experience, midwives or midwifery students. This requirement can also be met by observing a childbirth preparation class series.*

The optional three-hour Breastfeeding Course for Doulas offered the evening prior to the Birth Doula Workshop satisfies the breastfeeding class attendance certification requirement for those who are not lactation counselors, lactation educators, lactation consultants, breastfeeding peer counselors or La Leche League leaders. This requirement can also be met by observing a breastfeeding class or workshop that meets certain criteria or participating in the on-line course option approved by DONA International.*

*See the DONA International Certification Guide at www.DONA.org under “Become a Doula, Birth Doula Certification.”

Workshop Facilitator:

Sunday Tortelli is a DONA approved birth doula trainer and DONA advanced certified birth. She has been offering DONA approved basic and advanced birth doula workshops since 1997 and was one of the first group of doulas awarded the DONA Advanced Certified Doula designation in 2015.

Sunday is certified as a childbirth educator with Birth Works International, the HypnoBirthing Institute and Lamaze International and is an Evidence Based Birth instructor. In 2015, she received the prestigious Fellow of the Academy of Certified Childbirth Educators award. She is also certified as a lactation counselor with the Academy of Lactation Policy and Practice and as a HUG Your Baby trainer.

Sunday provides childbirth preparation classes independently and as an educator with a Cleveland hospital system. She has extensive experience providing services as a birth doula in both hospital and home settings since 1990. Sunday currently serves on the DONA International Birth Doula Certification Committee and previously served on the DONA International Board of Directors as the Director of Publications, President Elect, President and Past President and on various committees from 2005 to 2016. Locally, she is on the steering committee of ICAN of Greater Cleveland.

Sunday is the mother of four adults whose birth experiences shaped her philosophies and fueled her passion for birth work.
